Continued Expansion in Europe

Workday Rising Europe 2014 comes to Europe as Workday continues its strong growth in the region. With customers from the world's leading industries, including financial services, healthcare, life sciences, education, government, manufacturing, retail, hospitality, and technology, the demand for HR and finance applications built for the cloud is growing rapidly. Workday has more than 50 customers headquartered in the region with more than two-thirds of those customers live and gaining the benefits of a single, unified platform of applications for HR and finance in the cloud.

Comments on the News

"We are seeing a sharp rise in the number of companies across Europe making the move to the cloud, and they are increasingly putting HR and finance into the Workday cloud to gain more efficiency, productivity, and a customer community that's unmatched in the industry," said Chano Fernandez, President, EMEA, Workday. "Our customers are our first priority, and Workday Rising Europe 2014 is our opportunity to work hands-on together to ensure their Workday experience delivers the value and business impact they are looking to achieve."
